CALENDAR ANNOUNCEMENT

McDONALD'S® AIR & SEA SHOW® SOARS INTO FORT LAUDERDALE ON MAY 5 – 6, 2007

WHAT: The McDonald's Air & Sea Show, one of the nation's largest spectator events, is a two-day extravaganza featuring top civilian and military performances as part of the McDonald's® National Salute to America's HeroesSM. This 13th annual event draws millions of spectators to witness amazing performances by all five branches of the U.S. military, including the United States Air Force Thunderbirds Demonstration Team.

This exhilarating weekend is preceded by Fleet Week USA® presented by McDonald's®, the annual celebration designed to thank the nation's sea-going military personnel for their dedicated service to our country. Each year, thousands of sailors aboard several Navy ships dock in Port Everglades for a week-long series of community service projects, special events and more.

WHEN: Saturday, May 5 and Sunday, May 6
9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

WHERE: Fort Lauderdale, Florida
Along a 4-mile stretch of Fort Lauderdale beach, with best viewing between Oakland Park Blvd. and Las Olas Blvd.

WHY: The McDonald's Air & Sea Show commemorates National Military Appreciation Month observed each May, which honors the dedicated men and women serving our country, educates the public about each branch of the military and enhances recruitment efforts.

COST: This event is free and open to the public.
